There's an odd rumor that James Patterson, the top-selling thriller writer, is writing an exposé about you. This is a bit odd because Patterson doesn't write journalism or non-fiction. In fact, Patterson doesn't really even write his own books, but partners with someone with Patterson fronting as the brand-name author. But perhaps it's possible that some publisher has a scheme to use the Patterson name on an investigative piece. Could it be that the writer is that guy from Vanity Fair who has long and unsuccessfully been shopping a book about you? I have no first hand confirmation of any of this.
