Jeffrey,

On July 7th Jay White and I called Joe Ackerman to let him know that a hearing was coming up on fees and to ask him for some information relating to divisions of fees. Today I got a phone call from James Hurley who is General Counsel for Fowler White.

Hurley told me that it was firm policy that he vet all requests that a firm member testify. I explained the situation and he seemed satisfied. He stated that he will ask Joe to return our call and cooperate.

At the end of the conversation he asked if Joe would be compensated for his time in preparing to testify. This would be SOP but I know there was some unpleasantness during the separation so I wanted to check with you before committing. We will need the testimony of someone from Fowler White and Joe seems to have had the most involvement.

Chet
