stefano sent a revised bid this morning which had adjustments in two categories vs original bid stereo went from 7,115 to 7,979 bench replacement to tall man adjustment went from 4,550 to 3,500

net decrease of 241

stefano said he would still do all work for 16,000

please confirm that it is ok to proceed with tall man seat adjustment (instead of bench replacement) and total price of 16,000

thank you

- 1) do you want to replace bucket seats for bench as per our earlier conversation for 2000 more OR
- 2) per stefano do a tall man adjustment and keep buckets but move back at least 6" or more for 2nd row and leave 3rd row as is

I was able to negotiate 16,000 vs 17,500 original bid. Please advise if I can bring car in Monday or shall I wait until you leave New York next week. Thank you.
