Peggy:

Again, please let's resolve this. We are willing to discuss an amendment to the amount due. It's been well over a year since you committed to pay (please see your 03/14/14 e-mail below), we have yet to receive funds or a response.

We will pay you. Will that encourage my brother or his lawyers to act professionally and respond to you?

What's the game plan going forward?

They stall for a few more years hoping you will go away.

Please advise your game plan. I pay my bills.

Would appreciate some indication all our efforts are for naught and this whole 3 year effort has not been a waste of our time.

Feel like I lost. Feel like you let me down.

Thank you for all your efforts thus far. Is there any future in this case? Do we even have a case?

What about an answer from my mother/brother's lawyers.

What about some answers on the money owed me.

What about the accounting we have asked for over three years. Would love to pay for some information and closure. Peggy

Subject: NRF Invoices - Siegal - Estate Administration

Dear Ms. Siegal,

I work with Phil Michaels in the Business group in the NRF-New York office. Our records indicate the following invoices on the above remain outstanding:

Inv Number	Inv Date	Inv Amt Billed	Balance Due
11399168	09/30/2013	$ 2,146.16	$ 2,146.16
11405774	10/28/2013	$ 1,999.00	$ 1,999.00
11425323	01/31/2014	$ 3,048.00	$ 3,048.00
11431730	02/26/2014	$ 1,195.00	$ 1,195.00

For your reference, the attached file contains a copy of each invoice in the order listed above. Upon your review, can you please assist us in processing payment for these invoices.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Many thanks,

Bryan
