I will probably see your uncle soon. I have no intention of speaking about biz in any form. no mention of money etc. I feel sad for him and wanted to express my support. I know him quite a long time. He and I had a very private conversation re his decision to be made the following week re marrying marla. i was one of the very few people with advance knowledge. ..

That being said, . I was suprised not to hear back from you or your brother re my request for a charity .. I feel awkward having to remind you of the role I played, expenses I incurred, agreements that were reached ( ask Terje larsen). I was the one that uncovered hundreds of millions in errors in his financial reporting. work done at his request. . not fair, but either is his illness. . I understand
