Hi Jeffrey-here's an update on a few things leon and I have been discussing:

1. we did jpm as individual account for leon with bjw poa once apollo "solved" our compliance issue. We're using the same structure as rowan and harris, ie, leon can't know what's going until after the fact and I have to so attest.

(As u know we still don't have "clean" paper work from deutsche; been promised for monday.)

2. We're going to file an amended fbar referencing the uk escrow acct once we 100% confirm there is no unreported income issue.

3. We are processing the $750k IFI check.

4. We are filing an extension (5/15) for the foundation as we have done in past years.

5. Trying to rationalize all leons bofa interest rates to L+125; however, loans have different durations.

6. As discussed, generally speaking you and I see office structure and needs quite similarly. B

Update on DB:

I reviewed with DB the numerous brokerage account opening forms submitted in May 2014 with the forms DB circulated in April 2015. The 2014 documents covered various DB entities – DB Alex Brown, Deutsche Asset Management, DB Securities Inc and DB Trust Company. Based on DB's internal review of the forms submitted in May 2015 and April 2014, DB is now preparing a full set of account documents to ensure that we have all the necessary forms to trade the various financial products contemplated. The DB pre-completed set of documents that will update and replace prior forms. I left DB a voicemail and ask that they revert today with an update.

Thanks Brad.

Rich – Are you free the next few days for an introductory call? May also be helpful to discuss what will be needed if we go down the LLC route.

Best,

Amanda

Brad- it was very nice meeting you over the phone this morning. Please find three documents attached to be completed:

1. Key Client Partners (KCP) onboarding letter
2. Power of Attorney (POA) - please note this form must be notarized.
3. DB Connect Third Party Access Form – will be used to set up electronic access to the account. One form should be completed for each interested party.

As discussed, we will hold off on sending additional paperwork (product specific and ISDA related) until we receive further clarity about set-up. I have included my contact information below, please do not hesitate to reach out directly should you have questions.

Thank you,

Vahe
