Gustavo when I knew him was working as a caregiver to John. I liked him a lot and I know John did. I think at some point Tussi moved him out and installed her own crew but he performed well. He never as far as I know worked as John's estate manager in PB.
There is a fairly closely knit alumni network of John's former staff. They all like "Goose". I checked with Gene, John's longtime (40 year) employee who thinks highly of Gustavo and says he has since worked as an estate manager in NY and as a driver/security person too.
In short, he gets good marks.
Paul

Moens informs me that Wilf of the Vikings and Tanne (Chris Angle's client) are still interested joined by Wally Turner's (Sothebys) client who saw it on Tuesday and seems taken with it. All three contemplate major redo's. Moen's expects something to happen.

Do you know how long Joe will be hanging out there? Do you know how interested he really might be in getting something of his own?
