And I have been thinking a lot now back and forth of what I should do and how I should spend my time here most effectively. Always trying to be as helpful as I can to you and Jeff but also focus on my career now

"Since I have to leave the states around 25th-26th April to go to [REDACTED] for work plus appointments with here from next weekend a shooting with a good photographer from here to develop my book and also another job the booker have been talking about that I might get and also castings and clients that they really want me to meet makes me think I should spend as much time here in [REDACTED] as possible. I just got signed and booked the first casting and already worked. It seems like they really believe in me and that they like me so I think I should show them that I am serious aswell and stay here as much as possible until I have to go back to [REDACTED] So doing both island + Ny is gonna be a lot of time away from here and I think right now my focus should be here on castings and work! Do you understand how I am thinking? I have a place in NY where I can stay"

All the best, [REDACTED]
