Subject: Question from local NM Non-Profit

To: Jeffrey@jeffreyepstein.org

Mr. Epstein,

I am the Executive Director at a local New Mexico non-profit. We are a very unique program and are currently the subject of an IRB approved study in regards to our approach in helping the homeless and those individuals dealing with substance abuse issues. Our Four Pillars of Education-Exercise-Community-Service are proving to be very successful in our approach to addressing these very important social problems. We are a very unique program with no others like us in existence, that we know.

I would, very much, like to know if we might be eligible for any type of funding through your foundation. We receive no governmental funding and prefer to keep it that way.

I could go in to more detail about what this funding would do and how it would be utilized to further our vision and mission if necessary. However, I would first like to know if we are eligible for support.

I know this email probably goes to a representative of yours. So, forgive me if it is addressed improperly.

Thank you for the time.

Respectfully,

Jeffrey Holland , LMSW

Executive Director
