Do you want to match my $500 donation to this early childhood outfit in Harlem? I would ask my company but they are broke and this school really needs the help because their founder and main fund raiser (a great man by the way) died recently. I think in fact I might have persuaded you to give to the Ricardo O'Gorman Garden in the past. They even send some of their kids to Dalton! (among other places).

Anyway: more shameless shaking of the money tree. I might give Bloomberg a try too -- but the bureaucratic hurdles there are a bit more daunting.

Hope you are enjoying your media respite.
