Yes, that's the home I was referring to. Built by a German to German architectural standards, with outstanding detailing, unlike those properties on the Bab Atlas estate which are all falling to bits (including Dar Olfar and its neighbour which was recently purchased by the Emir of Qatar for €100m and now having to rebuild bit by bit as there is no steel reinforcement).

Quite apart from the climate and easy access to Europe, what sets this country apart in my opinion is the willingness and capability of staff. They learn very quickly and only have to be shown how to do something once which is a treat!!

Anyway, enough talk from me. When you have time, come and see for yourself. There are a plethora of 5* Hotels ranging from the classic Mamounia to the Amanjena, Selman, the Palais Namaskar and Royal Palm.

You would also be welcome to stay with me, but may find the size of my house rather claustrophobic!!

. I have had poor access to the Internet. You may even be aware of the house which was built a few years ago by a German. It is by far the most refined property here and with an amazing garden. I will try and obtain as much I can for you and send tomorrow.

There is a much more refined and spectacular home here for sale than Dar Olfa which might just appeal to you.

Are you heading here soon? What do you think will be the effect of Germany rejecting Geece's bail out plan?

Alberto Pinto did an amazing home for Prince Bandar there. One of the great advantages of Morocco is the quality of staff available. They are willing, polite and very conscientious. A rarity these days!!

Hi Jeffrey,

I just wondered if you had any insight into what made the Swiss Central Bank as it did this week? Is there something more to all this than meets the eye??

As ever,

Mark
