I'd say photo is fairly important. Makes the piece more difficult without it. Certainly lessens the negotiating position with regard to what's in it. From PR view, I think it makes you look more upfront and uncowed-- especially if it's you straightfaced sitting at the head of the table. I think that can be a powerful statement. Let's talk about Ruemmler. I'm back on sunday and assume I will spend the next week trying to close the piece. m
