I didn't follow through with the advice - I answered the phone and went to see him, moreover, helped him with packing and folded all his shirts - he said no one had ever done this for him. Then he got the text from Ken

Cy texted me from Florida last night, as if nothing had happened..

I find it very distasteful, that Ken kept snooping around, Cy could have told him to stop (it was ok 2 months ago when we just met, but not now). 2 of my girlfriends are dating C's friends - I never asked for any insight.

Besides, [REDACTED] credibility is zero - she told me she had seen Cy at a party, he told me it wasn't possible cause he had a trainer that day (we were only starting to date then, 2 months ago).

[REDACTED] is up to something, I thought she would call me to tell that Ken had been asking questions about me again - she did not.

I told C that I spoke to [REDACTED] about it cause I wasn't feeling well and needed to talk to someone I trusted. He said that I put him at risk that way and it's even worse than the situation yesterday. [REDACTED] doesn't even know who Ken is... I said let's talk next week - he left to Palm beach to see his family cause he thought I would be in paris this weekend.
