If these things had been said during her sleep they would commonly be referred to as dreams, if while awake, hallucinations, but said to a reporter they are now referred to as allegations.

-- On a close inspection, instead of the more common caption, based on a true story, a fictionalized account of true events. these should be captioned based on a fictionalized story, a true account of total fabrications weaves a good story in the long history of storytellers. . no more no less.

the history of this story teller is yet to be added to history sex, royalty money power, an age old set of standard ingredients for popular fiction.

lets put her in a room with Paul ekman

I fear that if I said I try to turn the other cheek it might stimulate the purient interest of the bacon and egg set.
