Hi. I am having a slight mutiny as the kids want to stay in the bvi until the very last minute on 12/31 and only get to yhg s sun sets to dock for the festivities. While I'm sure it's an imposition would you mind terribly if I surrendered to their collective demands and did not come for lunch tomorrow? In the alternative I'd like to come myself on 1/5 immediately following the inauguration and spend a few hours with you catching up. They're having a great time and just want to do their thing. Given that they are all together rarely, my inclination is just to succumb.
