Punctual - I like. Innovative industry : examples ? What is really new/interesting in finance I can teach them about ?

Smth they don't know but you have already heard !

I can quote the new creation of Credit Default Swaps with Essex/Stamley in 1990s and the phenomenon of hedge fund is new itself.

All these questions must be prepared too...

for interview; front office stuff

- Why do you want to work in hedge funds?
- Why do you want to work for our firm in particular?
- What would you say are our firm's strengths and weaknesses?
- What skills do you bring to our firm?
- Why do you think you'll be successful in a hedge fund business?

Anyone involved in hedge funds will likely have a passion or deep interest in investing and the markets. So you can expect a bunch of questions that explore your interest level and opinions, such as:

- What do you invest in?
- Do you own any stocks or do any non-work-related investing?
- What do you think of the markets in general right now?
- If you could invest in anything, anywhere in the world right now, what would that be?

With warm wishes,
Cordialement,

Jeffrey, sorry for numerous emails...but now it is a period when I think the most about our Nabokov-Lolita experience and about everything I went through with you...

I have this interview with a Field Street hedge fund, New York, London, Monaco based. The founder absolutely loves me and wants to hire for the operations department either in New York or in Monaco. But I must meet the whole team first, and I know as much about Hedge funds as you know about snowboarding !

If I could call you even for 2 minutes to hear your "encouraging voice", nothing else, it would make me very very very happy!

p.s. : when are you and [REDACTED] are back in NY? [REDACTED], the kindest, nicest, very gorgeous friend of mine is looking forward to meeting you...she is a good girl, very smart and from a very good family..but is curious and happy to learn new things too..
