Good afternoon Frank,

I had a brief chat with Darren. Please ask Mark Lande to mark up what you find to be objectionable or an over reach and send it back to Darren.

With warm regards,
Cecile

Cecile,

I just tried to call you and understand you are off island. In the in interest of time I am e-mailing you as well. The attached (clean and redline version) which Mark Lande received from Darren contains lots of new issues both economic and structural. I don't know where all of these new proposed terms came from as they are not referenced in any of our e-mail exchanges. I am at a loss as to how to instruct Mark to respond so I have told him to just stand down. I am looking to you for guidance. I am in Nashville if you want to discuss.

Good morning, Mark.

Made it into the City today, thankfully.

I received numerous comments changes and additions from several people, as well as had points of my own, and incorporated it all into this revised draft. Given the changes, the redline was not particularly helpful. So, I am sending you a clean copy to review. Jeffrey has yet to review the document, but I wanted to get it to you as soon as I could. It is therefore subject to any comments he may have. I'll speak to you at 12:30PM today. Thanks.
