Very generous. We thank you from the bottom of our cantabridgian hearts. As you know, this is a special passion of mine. The Hasty Pudding's Ancestral home (built in 1888) was restored, renovated and expanded into one of Harvard's primary performing arts centers which you named in honor of my father. The building is still the home of the hasty pudding theatricals and the harvard krokodiloes. The main lobby, know as the hasty pudding lobby, is a permanent museum for pudding ephemera and artwork. Thank you.

Woody, because of his life's history, his sophisticated and comedic work, and his philanthropic heart, would be an ideal and deserving recipient and would help raise money for the pudding to support the cultivation of comedie, satire and political humor, in every conceivable way, throughout the US.

Of course. The Hasty Pudding takes the money it raises and supports arts and education everywhere. It has given money to The American Repatory Theater, public school systems, for the awarding of fellowships, etc., all around the performing arts.
