I appreciate leaving us to it but left to our own devices nothing seems to have come of it.

It could be too soon to discuss Phaidon if the operation is still HQ'd in London. Of course i'd be (very) amenable to a brief spell in London but I have no idea where he sees the company heading. I know where I'd like to see the company go but i don't know whether there's a position that would let me work on that. He mentioned bringing in Judith Regan who seems completely antithetical to the entire ethos of the company.

It's probably best if I come in 2 weeks -- in early June -- to coincide with your return from the island and Leon's return...

Any way in which you feel like you'd like to whisper in Leon's ear on my behalf would be great!

But the most important seeds have been planted: I need to get out of LA and showbiz. I think I finally snapped out of it.

I can't imagine the 2 days between today and Weds will have made much of a difference. L and I haven't discussed anything material, so it's hard for me to gauge what any of this is or where it's going. We've texted a little bit. V friendly, but not work related... I really would like to do this Phaidon thing, but I'm not exactly sure that's what he imagines... Other than that: I sure hope that if I do come on Weds, you have time to see me.

Just got a message from Leon that he will not be in NY the next 3 weeks. Since I was under the impression I was coming to NY to discuss Phaidon etc with Monsieur Black, it might be better if I come later, when he is actually there... Not a problem to change my ticket at all... If I'm going to sit around doing nothing, I may as well stay put in LA, finishing up some writing projects I've got here... Don't you think??
