Thanks for sending. As for the brain, have you spent time with Kandel? As for the article, the intersections are amazing. I was Dershowitz's research asst in 1971 at Stanford Center for Behavioral Sciences. He fixed Nicole and me up. As for Lafayette, I would have gone there if we hadn't moved to Astoria. And just last week I met Wexner in Columbus at a meeting on education reform that was organized by David Gergen. Thanks for breakfast invite, look forward.

Really enjoyed last night. Like that your mind is anything but conventional. Thanks for including me. (Sorry Nicole couldn't make -- Japanese video conferences take place at inopportune hours.) Hope we find a time to do it again. Best, Joel
