I was just about to write you. All organs failing and the hospital has decided to issue a mandatory discharge today. They are installing a port and sending him home to my step sister's house with hospice nurses. They give him 24-96 hours. I am scrambling to keep my shit together and make all of the requisite arrangements. Please understand, and I 100% know you will, if I am unable to talk just now. I sort of just cry. I will need a couple of weeks to work myself through all of this. When he goes everything will take place at Campbell's, Central synagogue, Kensico, and shiva at my house. Xoxo. Thank you for always being so good to me.
