

From: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>
To: Martin Weinberg <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Re: ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE
Date: Sat, 13 Jun 2009 21:43:01 +0000 do you think i should go forward with the jpsoehburg face to face?

On Sat, Jun 13, 2009 at 5:40 PM, Martin Weinberg <[REDACTED]> wrote:
You and I redflagged the issue for Jay. But lets get beyond yesterday's events. Set up procedure so Roy, Alan, I are empowered to veto civil pleading.

----- Original Message -----

From: Jeffrey Epstein
To: Martin Weinberg ; Alan M. Dershowitz
Sent: Saturday, June 13, 2009 5:12 PM

- Roy BLACK Sloman will just say we have a written agreement and refer to that. The lawye... 4:10 PM (37 minutes ago)
- Roy BLACK Loading... 4:10 PM (36 minutes ago)
-

Roy BLACK show details 4:10 PM (37 minutes ago) Reply  Follow up message

to me

Sloman will just say we have a written agreement and refer to that. The lawyers are at fault here. How could they possibly think this was not a violation? One of the purposes was to avoid a criminal trial and conviction. We are the proverbial kid who kills his parents and asks for mercy because he is an orphan. Let's not fool ourselves here.