- arguably for patrick. : no regs yet. property for property
- Taxes :Income from bartering is taxable in the year it is performed. Bartering may result in liabilities for income tax, self-employment tax, employment tax, or excise tax. Your barter activities may result in ordinary business income, capital gains or capital losses, or you may have a nondeductible personal loss.
- Reporting The rules for reporting barter transactions may vary depending on which form of bartering takes place. Generally, you report this type of business income on Form 1040, Schedule C Profit or Loss from Business, or other business returns such as Form 1065 for Partnerships, Form 1120 for Corporations, or Form 1120-S for Small Business Corporations.

it is not the same- foundations like people are all not created equally. :). unlike cash the contributor could be setting themselves up for problem (tax) on contribution. ! If I were you , I would consider leap frogging these old patriarch created structures. there are many parameters to your issue and each parameter has some iterations. - BTW Noam Chomsky yesterday referred to me as the Swiss Army Knife of finance. . not sure the standard 501 c4 is a pinnacle of todays possibilities. recall bitcoin is inherently anonymous and bearer like. ., currently impossible to establish jurisdiction . custodianship./ insurance. / agreed valuation/ regulation. The film looks like sooo much fun.!

Having our fec lawyers check all this but think 'property' is fine as folks donate real assets all the time--this is same as a foundation ---when I save 'have' I mean we take it as a donation and then use it on support of building out this grassroots army , unless you are saying we start to issue our own

Btw we would call it 'the citizen'

You might call the new coin a "Wee"

As in "we "the people

You can , and should , set up A "DAF " , a donor advised fund (charitable deduction " for the causes important to the deplorables . Look at cooperative structures for exchange within communities and research campaign finance with coins.

And that's -just the start

Film sounds fun
