Hey Bossman,

Danny just called me very upset because Brice confronted him about wanting to live on GSJ and why he needed to take vacation. Danny is upset because he thinks that's I'm telling Brice everything we've talked about

He said that Brice told him that he heard that he wanted to Live on GSJ but he would have to run it by Jeffrey first and if he "Danny" could explain why he's going on vacation again

Not sure what's going on...
