Did i ever suggest that? ;)

In matter of fact - the opposite. Timing is another issue.

Logical. But he should know better. He is a survivor and a fighter. Would eventually get his way. Blair/brown did not leave many leaders behind. It would be a great opportunity to grab.

Still in the car and runing behind. My first meetings starts at 1:30pm.

That would be an interesting move! He would need to do some explaining i guess. But i guess we all see light sooner or later ;)

Had no clue that no one from [REDACTED] This is real shame. Why did he ever accept a [REDACTED]?

I was thinking that [REDACTED] Wasnt [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] 45 years or so ago? Or perhaps he was [REDACTED] afterwards.

I felt so bad for [REDACTED] He came with this awful magazine that had him on the cover and 4pages running story. Spreading lies and misinformations. I hate when people go into private lives. I guess you know better than most of people.

I am stranded on the road due to snow and heavy traffic. In not so good (or more importantly cute company!)

He is the only one who could emerge as a leader of a labor. If anyone could pull it, he could. However he might be fed up with all.

Still in the car. It is snowing.

Called you an hour ago from zurich airport and left message. I am in the car from zurich to davos. Pls lets speak later in day - there are several big ears around me (chief writer and editor of the economist and some others).

Hope you are well!

Did you hear anything from [REDACTED]?
