it helps although I have that much on credit cards already. Can do it as income if that makes a difference.. Last year's transfers can also be claimed as income on my end..
thank you

So the double balance is only 17,087 since August. Turns out not being able to travel internationally is problematic for a pilot, among other things.. I'm trying to hire a lawyer for a green card, file a patent application, pay credit cards, get plane fixed and hoping to freeze eggs soon. Is it possible to get an advance on future doubles to help move things along? I can offer continuing education for Russian girlfriends.. ;)
