Dear Jeffrey,

I am sorry to be late with my answer in your question" what you are doing?"

I was so busy ,i even didn't have time to check my email box.I do everything i can, studying art-dance,attending some dance projects-just because they pay something, but there is no artistic value,advertisements too.seriously practising joga,plus i have to be a good daughter and girlfriend...so tired of relationship with a person which i don't love.so much tension...we always fight!aaaa!

But the main thing I do is trying to develop dance culture in Lithuania.my idea is to invite a well-known choreographer(for example [REDACTED] he is known as a ballet magician) organise audition, and build something what is never been showed i this gloomy country. even now, then nothing has been done yet, i smash into suspense...so many things i don't know, but the best way to learn is to do.i have to find a place to equip the dance studio,to organise audition(there is no good dancers in Lithuania, everyone left), to write letter asking a support from art fund...and many other things..I am sure, by time i will have many questions and i would be very happy to be able to ask your advise...

Everything seems fine,i am busy, my family is healthy, but recently i hear my heart saying to me that this is not a place i want to be...so gloomy , so dark...i am trying close my eyes against that rude,drinking,unhappy society...the culture will never changes here... mentality of people is broken...its difficult to life here, specially when i spend lots of time travelling and studding completely different life style,relationships between people,approach to the activity which they are engaged in...everything is so strange to me here...i can't imagine having Lithuanian husband!!!i believe i won't have it!:)

Having such a mood i settle down my thoughts dreaming about wide world! opportunities to see, to know much more as i am able to do it here...

My dear Jeffrey, how are you? I got something to show you.Please, share with me your opinion...The picture I attached to you to look is fotoshoot from the serial "Wild Woman" i posed naked for a best photographer from Lithuania.The gallery should be open on Spring in Mote Carlo!

I always think of you!

Best regards and lots of kisses!
