From the very beginning. So much that the previous lawyer who was representing me, dropped the case without any explanation. Just said the proposals would not work and that Noam's children were not going to allow what Noam wanted.

And MIT informed Noam that I'm not entitled to any pension, according to them the pension will cease completely and Carol was the beneficiary. Noam thought this was not completely right, but we never investigated it.

Social security only after I reach a certain age.

Not that I am interested in any of this, but there are rights and there have been too many lies and manipulation. And these are unbearable.

Here is something for your additional analysis.
There are other proposals from Max.

Good morning Noam, Valeria and Harry –

With thanks for your patience, I'm sending along (attached to this email) a summary of our conversation last Saturday, attempting to clearly lay out the provisions that were agreed upon with respect to the disposition of Noam's estate by means of a revised will and with the establishment of separate trusts for Valeria's exclusive benefit and for Noam's intellectual property. The new memorandum builds upon the one that we reviewed on Saturday (which I have also attached to this email for reference) and the new memorandum also reflects comments and suggestions from the Bainco team (who have reviewed several iterations of the memorandum and added good suggestions throughout this week).

Once you've had a chance to look over the attachments to this email, please get back to me with comments, questions or corrections. Once I have the green light from Noam I will start to draft the final documents to accomplish all of this.

Looking forward to your replies, I send you best wishes for a Happy Halloween!

Yours truly,

Max
