This is a great result and a very fast negotiation.

As I have worked in the financial market, I knew what Bainco did could have put them in jail.

But we needed you to show who was in the driver's seat. The story would be left were it was, without Noam seeing one cent from his money back. And without anyone moving one finger to do anything about it: including Max; Deborah -- our lawyer, who told Noam he shouldn't do anything about it, when Gene (from her office) advise us that something was very wrong and something should be done; Nick -- our accountant. Absolutely no one would have done anything. But you.

We know that there is not enough to compensate for all you have been doing for us, but we would like if you would retain whatever percentage you think appropriate for all the time you have been putting in this particular case.

Many thanks.

Valeria

For Settlement Purposes Only

Dear Rich:

Bainco has authorized me to confirm that it will meet your demand with respect to Noam's investments in private equity partnerships at Bainco. Our understanding is that Noam invested a total of $267,500 (through his revocable trust and his IRA) and received a tax benefit of approximately $27,000 due to realized capital losses, resulting in a net investment of $240,500. Bainco will pay that amount to Noam and Noam will relinquish his entire interest in the private equity partnerships (a portion of the settlement amount may be paid through a third party's purchase of Noam's interest in the RFID partnerships at his original purchase price). The settlement agreement will include mutual releases and standard non-disclosure and non-disparagement provisions. Please confirm at your earliest convenience and I will prepare the settlement agreement for your review.

Regards,
Bill
