My husband sells video cameras that require special installation. He can sell to integrators or distributors only. I would prefer not involving you in my husbands business, because I believe the quality of his product would not serve your purposes. It is to my best interest that you purchase products that are up to your standards and your satisfaction.

Thank you,

Bella

About my husbands "business". He lost his job 3 years ago and decided to do same work on his own: it is to resell video cameras that are manufactured in China (These are no brand name cameras). For the past 3 years he made very little sales and no profit at all. There is a tremendous amount of competition and very few people are looking for a no brand items.

My husband is 60 years old and it is very difficult to find a job or to start a new career.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Bella
