

From: GMAX <gmax1@ellmax.com>

To: J J <jeevacation@gmail.com>

Subject: FW: Reminder... Cocktail Invitation with Pr. Agid at [REDACTED] home -
Tuesday Dec 14th

Date: Mon, 13 Dec 2010 16:52:36 +0000

Attachments: Invitation_Dec_14th_-_Cocktail_with_Pr._Yves_Agid.pdf

Told you she was doing something on neuroscience

----- Forwarded Message

From: JC Agid <[REDACTED]>

Date: Mon, 13 Dec 2010 09:24:48 -0500

To: JC Agid <[REDACTED]>

Subject: Reminder... Cocktail Invitation with Pr. Agid at [REDACTED] home - Tuesday Dec 14th

Looking forward to seeing you on Tuesday.

JC AGID <[REDACTED]>

[REDACTED]
Requests the pleasure of your company

Tuesday, December 14th, 2010

From 6:30 to 8:30pm

for a cocktail and an intimate conversation on "Consciences"

with Professor Yves Agid

Professor in Neurology and Biology at the Pitié-Salpêtrière hospital, University of Paris

Co-Founder of the ICM – The Brain and Spine Institute

[REDACTED]
B [REDACTED] nue

About Professor Yves Agid

With over 600 publications under his belt, Yves Agid, Professor in neurology and biology at the Pitié-Salpêtrière hospital, University of Paris, is one of the most cited scientists of the past 20 years. Among his seminal works is the description of various neurodegenerative disorders and their associated biochemical and anatomical features, in particular Parkinson's and Alzheimer's disease.

EFTA00899744

Pr. Yves Agid is a co-founder and the Scientific Strategy Consultant of the “Institut du Cerveau et de la Moelle épinière” – ICM (Brain and Spine Institute), an international brain and spinal cord research center which is being launched in Paris. With 600 international researchers, engineers and technicians and 22,000 square meters of laboratory space, ICM is an innovative and ambitious model of excellence in the field of neuroscience.

Jean-Christian AGID

----- End of Forwarded Message