Hi Jeffrey

Still working 113.00 on the AMR Convert. Currently at 114.00.

On oil I think we should wait for a move back down to 85 before we put on the risk reversal. Let me know if you agree.

We should add another 2.5MM on the AUDJPY forward. This will get us up to 5MM notional. We are up around 20,000 on the first leg.

As of right now I have left instructions for the corn collar to cash settle. This will expire on 21 dec.

Paul
