I just called this guy again to double check and he told me that he would give me a deal and charge me the same price no matter what size the rooms are which would be $ 2 per square foot.

I just looked at the invoice for the laundry and it was $ 6,780 and the total square feet was 677.91 which make it a $ 10 cost per square foot. And we supplied all the material so this was purely labor only.

And as I understand he has also been awarded additional work to tile the steps and deck above the laundry and the tiki hut and repair coral stone tiles around the main compound.

Thank you

I just contacted a local guy here in St. Thomas by the name of Rasheem Morton what he told me is the following:

It all depends on the size of the room and he would need to see the job site but just a rough quote without seeing the job would be a normal size room in a house with the material supplied his labor is $ 2 per tile and if the rooms are bigger it could be $ 3 per tile.

Jeffrey,

I went to home the other night and found similar ceramic tile for .80 a square floor.

They also informed me they do not do any tile installation.

laundry tile

1. tile purchase ,I personally went to home depot and they had tile for .88 cents a sq.ft.I sent Bill down the next day to pick it up and the cheap tile had all been bought.I personally then went to a flooring company at sub base and found tile at .99 cents a sq.ft. and we used it.

2. we have three bids from tile setters other than Dennis Boone who is behind on the master and has the kitchen as well, and went with the lowest (Phillip Marks very close to Dennis's cost) to do the laundry (done) and the laundry roof coral stone (under way)

This particular job was not bided out because Dennis has been the low bid on all previous jobs.

The laundry room was done by a different vendor at $ 10 per square foot. Dennis charge is $ 6 per square foot but he wasn't able to do this job because he had too much on his plate.

Jeffrey

The ceaserstone(kitchen floor) fabricator that Dennis Boone was using in Maimi has failed to perform and has been paid $20,000

I need to take it over and get it done direct. It will require me to pay for the material again. We have a fabricator who promises to get it picked up/fabricated/shipped next week. Dennis can get it installed for the cabinet delivery.

We have a lot of work that Dennis is doing and I believe we can we will get our money back from him, and he acknowledges the debt.

Do I have your OK to proceed
