

From: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>
To: Sarah K <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Re: Russian visas
Date: Thu, 16 Dec 2010 21:39:02 +0000

ask vlad,

On Thu, Dec 16, 2010 at 3:38 PM, Sarah K <[REDACTED]> wrote:

I spoke to an agency who helps with Russian visas. They said the best visa for us to get would be a business visa which is good for one year. They can apply for the invitation for us which takes 2 weeks to get. Once we have the invitation, we have to give our passports to the Russian consulate for 3 days to process the visa. All we have to give them for the invite is a copy of our passports, the company name, address, phone number and your position in the company. If we gave them that info today, we would have the invite by Dec 31st, but the Russian Consulate is closed from Jan 1-10, thus we could have the visas by Jan.13 at the earliest. The cost is $800

Otherwise, if you want to stick with a tourist visa they are only good for one month and can be processed in a day.

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments.