To be fair to S on this occasion. He sent her a charming Christmas Card (quite unlike the hassle he has been causing over the past few months) and S asked if she should respond I said my usual it is better to keep your enemies close so she did. He then responded with the fact that he was in touch with you and that things were progressing. I then told her to tell him that if that was the case then he should ring Amanda to tell her that he was in a position to accept my deal and that anything else would follow as soon as possible. That's it.

From his email to you he says he'll ring [REDACTED] which is what I want him to do in the first instance because this then gets him in line with all the others who have agreed with my offer. From my understanding of the facts once he confirms with [REDACTED] that he will accept, then 25% of the $130k will be paid over immediately, as it is ready in the queue to go. ALL the others are now paid.

What happens next is to sort out the rest and that, because of my legal position, has to be done between you and he, of course with my help but NOT S's.

From the signature to my deal going forward I hope that S will never speak to him again. However I'm not sure that will happen.

Hope this placates your ire. Sorry it happened again but there are extenuating circumstances.

Dear Mr Epstein,

I just spoke to [REDACTED] and said that I'd drop you an email with the latest news. I heard from the Duchess a few times over the weekend, and she indicated that a payment directly to Columbia University for $59,932.80 to cover my student debts and a separate payment to me for $54,126 to pay back my own cash was acceptable to the Duke. The Duchess added that the Duke would like me to call Amanda Thirsk to let her know that I am now in a position to be able to accept PWC's offer, which I'll do tomorrow once she's back in the office.

To help the process along, I have prepared a simple payment summary based on the assumption that PWC will be paying 25% of the original $126,722 owed to me. I have included my bank account details and a link detailing how to make payments to Columbia University.

Please let me know if there is anything else you'd like me to send through to you at this point.

With my thanks and best wishes,

Johnny
