Darren (or your civil attys) can call since he reached out to your lawyers thru Bob Critton/Jessica. He/they can ask for details, names since it is probable given NPA that the person/people who talked with him (if there in fact were people) were related to your pending civil case. Important, Darren should not offer him anything at this time - should only elicit facts.

Sorry. I just got your voicemail. I guess i didnt hear the phone.

He didn't give me specifics b/c whoever he talked to on your side told him your "new" lawyer would call him so he was confused. It was my understanding that someone came to his house to speak to him but I am not sure. Let me know if you need anything. I've spoken with him several times in the past so he's familiar with me.

PS- he is the one that we have an affidavit from re- fisten bullying him and telling him he was a cop.

I just received a call from Michael Friedman in California. He said the FBI is trying to speak with him re JE. He had called several times before I could call him back and when I did he said that he spoke to "someone" and was told that one of JE's lawyers would be contacting him. I don't know who he spoke to but I wanted to make sure you both know. Having spoken with him numerous times in the past, I know he tends to get frantic quickly.
