I don;t want to get hurt. I have worked hard and gone to school to be independent. Just like his investments. you are willing to take risks,, but need to protect against a wipe out.. moving in with him is likegiving him a free option. re investments everyone will want their money in dollars because they are afraid. the arabs will need to sell oil to keep thier peopl e happy so prices should go down

He s asking why I don't want to move in w him? I think I shouldn't refer to the break up and moving out w from B. (As u said its a bad example)

What should I say then? That I don't want to live together before marriage?
