tell him , you want to give yourself fully, unconditionally, you would love to move in .. he is asking you to take all the risk , if he changes his mind, you have no place to go.. you would love to find a solution.. what does he suggest.

He s asking why I don't want to move in w him? I think I shouldn't refer to the break up and moving out w from B. (As u said its a bad example)

What should I say then? That I don't want to live together before marriage?
