Female British journalist, Samantha, just called my home number. Obviously did not tell her who I was, but she specifically asked for Darren Indyke. I did not indicate who I was, I only asked who was calling, and then she identified herself as Samantha I could not make out the last name-- connection was not great, said she was a journalist and asked me if I knew you. I obviously gave her no comment, thanked her and she hung up the phone. Interesting point is, however, that she knew of me and somehow got my home phone. Hmm.
