Dear Jeffrey:

I hope this email finds you in a warmer, more pleasant climate than the one we're having here in NYC. This winter is really a drag. So I hope you are in Florida or the Caribbean catching some rays.

That said, I also hope you are still planning to be in New York on Sunday, March 27. If you recall from our conversation last October, Jay and I would like to introduce you to the work of the Zamir Choral Foundation by bringing you to the HaZamir 18th Anniversary Concert at Jazz at Lincoln Center. This is the concert of the 250-strong, high school teen choir that I told you about; and this year, the added bonus is that our daughter, Tali, is in it, and I think she's going to have a solo. :) The concert is at 6 PM and perhaps we could grab a bite together before or after.

All the best,
Elena Lefkowitz
