How about if I mail you a stripped-down what-centered version of today's spiel--a couple of pages--& than phone any time you can manage? (I can do w/o the Carrib, but I wish I were in Paris.) --David

Now I feel a lot better. How about if Lou Nemeth & I showed up in Manhattan some AM this or next week (or whatever time is good) & ran through the presentation? Could be brief. (Lou is the manager-type guy, except much smarter.)

Current owners of our IP have suddenly decided they're going to win the apple appeal. & even if they don't, other cases downstream are even bigger (far bigger), & even if they don't do that, the company itself will be worth money--bolt from the blue!--so they want to be in charge of my & Eric's new activity streams company or revived Mirror Worlds Tech; but for many reasons we want to be independent--but we can't upset Plainfield--& so are entertaining one of their potential investors at 10 this AM.

Doing this new-company stuff is a waste of my time--I do it badly, & meanwhile am not doing other things I do well; just like grading this damned pile of final papers (haven't even started). But for now I've got to do it. If we could just get funded & get to work.....

Hope I get to talk to you any AM anytime between tmw & the coming of the Messiah.
