I am considering sponsoring a conference for science. A program that would have 100 of the world's greatest scientists, talking about the future, medicine, biology, physics, etc.. 2000 people would attend. I had talked to Abdullah in Abu Dhabi about having it there and co-sponsoring. I haven't had any time to work on it, but before I start it up, I want to make sure that you think it's ok, that I do it there as compared with Dubai. Of course you get to make the decision. I only want to have fun. I would not want to unintentionally insult Sheikh Mohammed, who has been so kind to me, and as you know I am not well versed in the nuances of local politics.
