Jeffrey,

[REDACTED] from Immigration called me,. she told me the wood face with hair is ok for me to pick up, however, Thurman found "one" noxious item on the rug she wants to send for testing to clarify what it is, this will be at our expense, and if found hazardous she will have to export the rug, at our expense,. or no testing and just export the rug,. how should we proceed? also CM called me just now, and said that she was filing crew decorations and found my name in today's arrivals, strange? not sure if she was working when we arrived, but she just called me,. so she is aware of this issue, she said its out of her hands,.

thx,
Larry
