Good morning Noam –

As agreed, I have provided Harry with the names of three potential candidates as successor independent trustee of Carol's trusts. Harry has now spoken with each of them and is willing to appoint any one of them as my successor, if one of them is acceptable to you. Each of the candidates is an attorney in the Boston area with substantial experience in serving as a trustee and yesterday I provided their names to Deborah (who I understand knows two of them). The candidates are Marc Bloostein, of Ropes & Gray, George Cushing, of McLane Middleton and Arthur Page, of Hemenway & Barnes. Here are links to each of them:

I will look forward to hearing back from Deborah or you when you've had a chance to consider these candidates.

Thank you,

Max
