Crate and Barrel can make custom slipcovers for these 2 sleeper sofas from a bunch of different fabric choices in the store. If you like it, I can go get some samples of different fabric options if you want something different then what it shows on the website?:

These Pottery Barn sleeper sofas can also be customized with different fabrics. If you like, I can get some samples if you like any of these styles:

I know you said you don't want a Restoration Hardware couch for this room, but here is the one option you liked as a reference. This is the same style I have on order for the outside terrace which you liked for the arm chairs:

These sleepers from Room and Board have inflatable air chambers on the mattresses. You can order customized slipcovers as well.
