Rich requested that i inform you of Kerri's status as of date

please note I was not fully aware that you had given direction for her to contact the insurance company directly.

Kerri indicated this week that she was willing to return to painting in a limited capacity 60%.
We have had her ordering paint / material and organising the paint crews, helping with the relocation of the painting supplies and some touch up work, and helping out with admin work.
Her doctor has refereed her for physical therapy for 4 weeks, 2 session a week, before he will sign a release to full duties, this referral was forwarded to rich today.
The physio requires guarantee of payment before these service begin.
Rich feels that there will always be an issue here basically a no win situation.

The one thing we need from Kerri is a full inventory of the new paint colors used. This is very important for reordering in the future.
We where planning on having her do this next week a long with Room by room inventories of all the new furniture.

Kerri said to both Karen and I that she wants to work

Advise that your insurance company contacts her directly
