We have 5 - 10 million shares available to us directly from former FB employees, who want to sell them on the secondary market. Sharepost and Second Market have a price of $35/share, plus commission.

We have a price of $34 per share, including commission (can be negotiated for a large purchase). SAC Capital just bought a very large group (I think about 8 million shares worth) last month (not including commission) at $32.50/share.

All we do is put you directly in touch with the seller. You can then do your due diligence that the shares exist, that they have legal ownership, they have the right to sell the shares. You can also negotiate for your best deal on the price, which will depend upon how much you purchase. There is the usual 180 lockup.

Let me know if this interests you. No obligation.

Done. As I said, you can still retrieve the material by going to the cached files (nothing we can do about that), but they will disappear soon enough.

Can you tell me what happened?

Also, if you know anyone for a sizeable amount of pre-ipo facebook shares.

Thanks.
