Good Newsletter - Hurricane, 9/11,Grandparents, Peace, Water, Love

Dear Friends,

HURRICANE IRENE: Attention to all those who live on the Eastern Seaboard here are some tips on how to survive the fury of a hurricane. Our Only Good News prayers are with you.

Safety Tips Thanks to National Geographic

Coastal residents should form evacuation plans before a warning is issued to identify a safe shelter and a route to get there.

- Stock up on emergency supplies including food, water, protective clothing, medications, batteries, flashlights, important documents, road maps, and a full tank of gasoline.
- As a storm unfolds, evacuees should listen to local authorities on radio or television. Evacuation routes often close as a storm develops.
- Dedicated professionals and improved technology have made hurricane forecasting more accurate than ever before—but it's far from precise.
- If forced to weather a storm, get inside the most secure building possible and stay away from windows.
- Remember that a lull often signifies the storm's eye—not its end. Anyone riding out a hurricane should wait for authorities to announce that the danger has passed.

The following are the Johnny Prills lyrics for the National Song for Grandparents Day that we wanted to share.

The National Grandparents Day Song A Song for Grandma and Grandpa

Chorus:

Oh Grandma, Grandpa, you know that I love you
I love all those little things that you say and do
A walk through the park, a trip to the zoo
Oh Grandma, Grandpa I love you

Verse One:

Going to a ball game, fishing on the lake
Eating Grandma's cookies, boy they sure taste great
Going to the circus when it comes to town
Eating cotton candy and laughing at the clowns

Chorus:

Oh Grandma, Grandpa, you know that I love you
I love all those little things that you say and do
A hug and a kiss, a ride home from school
Oh Grandma, Grandpa I love you

Verse Two:

Spending time together, talking on the phone
Happy birthday presents, chocolate ice cream cones
Photographs and memories, picnics and parades
Saying that you love me in so many ways

Chorus:

Oh Grandma, Grandpa, you know that I love you
I love all those little things that you say and do
The stories you tell, things I never knew
Oh Grandma, Grandpa I love you

In closing, I want to share an important legal document that our friend and elder law attorney Ann Carrozza, (www.myelderlawattorney.com) suggests that everyone should create an Appointment of Agent to Dispose of Remains document. Hopefully, this document can make the process of loss of life easier for the surviving family.

Let’s all take a moment of silence to be thankful for all we have and to thank those who have responded or lost their lives from acts of hatred and misunderstanding. Let Peace Prevail on Earth.

Grandpa Paul Sladkus, Reverend (Interfaith Minister)
