I still haven't seen her. I'll go in every day this week to be sure I catch her.

Do you know Martin Seligman personally? I've started reading his stuff since I saw an article in the NYTimes last week that mentioned him. I'm in love with him. My latest.. I had an abortion and have a new goal to finish school and at some point transfer to University of PA and study with him.

Anyway.. I hope all is good with you. I will be intouch again w a picture soon. Promise promise. Promise.
