I could get a contract for him with discounts and he could call them the day before and get a driver whenever he needs it, and keep that person for the day.

A full time team is possible (those guys also provide fleets to corporations) but this could become (too expensive), because French labour laws are strict, so you need to have relatively frequent changes of staff.

I'll talk to Caroline to discover what she thinks

to all: let me know how I could help (I'm using multiple solutions in Paris for business transport, including the leader, Chabe, who is owned by friends that Jack also knows)
